

Belgian Delegation Shines at Aachen Backgammon Festival 2025

July 16–22, Aachen, Germany — The Belgian backgammon community can be proud of a remarkable showing at the 2025 Aachen Backgammon Festival, with several players delivering standout performances across multiple events.

Marc Triumphs in BMAB PR-Ranking

One of the most impressive highlights came from Marc, who emerged victorious in the BMAB (Backgammon Masters Awarding Body) event's Performance Rating (PR) category. Demonstrating exceptional consistency and strategic precision, Marc achieved an outstanding overall PR of 2.71, securing his place at the top of the leaderboard in this highly competitive field.

Geert and Daniel Rovira Reach Doubles Final

In the Doubles event, Geert teamed up with English partner Daniel Rovira to form a dynamic duo that advanced all the way to the finals. Their synergy and tactical prowess carried them through several tough matches, ultimately earning them a well-deserved runner-up position.

Michel Reaches Superjackpot Final

Veteran player Michel also made waves by reaching the final of the prestigious Superjackpot tournament. Known for his calculated risk-taking and deep understanding of the game, Michel's performance further solidified his reputation on the international scene.

Strong Showing by Daniel in Consolation Bracket

Meanwhile, Daniel showcased his resilience and skill by battling his way to the final of the Charlemagne Open Consolation Tournament, proving once again that persistence pays off in backgammon.

Mini Superjackpot Finalists: Daniel and Geert

To cap off a successful week, Daniel and Geert also made it to the final of the Mini Superjackpot, adding yet another strong result to the Belgian delegation's impressive résumé in Aachen.

A Week to Remember

The Belgian players demonstrated exceptional talent, sportsmanship, and consistency throughout the festival. Their collective achievements in Aachen reflect the growing strength and depth of the Belgian backgammon scene on the international stage.
